

Borealis 2023: Caterers

Welcome to the catering team! No food, no festival — so thank you so much for offering your (wo-)man power to slice, crumble, wash and cut and making this festival happen!

1. General

Don't be afraid to reach out if you need to ask anything. No questions are silly. It's better to ask than being in doubt. Please arrive on time to your shift! If you get sick or delayed, message or Abigaël right away!

As a member of our team you are an important part of how audiences, artists, partners and volunteers experience the festival. As a volunteer in the festival kitchen, your workplace is — surprise! — the festival kitchen at BIKS — Bergen International Cultural Centre. Working here, you will be with a team of 2 volunteers with May or someone else from Hallaisen. We will help make delicious, vegetarian food. We have around 90 meals a day on average, so it is busy, but fun and you get a good meal at the end! Tasks will include chopping, slicing, stirring, serving and washing up but it is a great environment to work in.

Don't forget that you cannot consume alcohol before or while you are working. Also, remember to change out of your festival t-shirt before you enjoy your drink.

a) Before you volunteer

- Figure out in good time how to get to your work station.
- Have a good breakfast, always :)
- Read the document pertaining to your position (You're doing it right now! Great job!).
- Get your credentials (see below in "accreditation" to know how).
- Check to see that you know the dates and times you are working and make sure you actually can.

b) During your shift

- You will receive a volunteer T-shirt that is to be worn when you are at work as well as your credentials. It is a good idea to wear comfortable clothes and shoes. You might get chilly, remember to bring an extra sweater! It is important that you only wear your T-shirt when working so that the audience and the staff can distinguish the people that are at work from other guests.
- As soon as you arrive on your shift, introduce yourself to Abigael or the volunteer team and make sure that they clock you in!
- Tie long hair back.
- Remove nail varnish and rings from hands and jewelery.
- If you have an apron, please bring one with you, we will also have some spares.
- Make sure to enjoy yourself during your shifts.
- Be helpful with information to guests, the industry and the volunteers.
- Do not sit with your phone when you're at work. Whenever you are on a break, please do so away from the main area.
- All decisions which, directly or indirectly, have financial consequences shall be clarified with the volunteer team or Abigael.

c) Before leaving

- Clean up everything.
- Put away the food.
- Get Abigael or the volunteer team to clock you out.

Now go enjoy a concert, go to the volunteer area if you're in between shifts or go enjoy yourself at the festival bar 😊

d) Social Media

You're where the action happens, so it's great if you share the wonderful moments that unfold before you! If you snap a picture of an amazing moment, you can send it directly to Irem Müftüoğlu, head of communication at +47 416 49 181. Pictures/videos can be from sound check, at the venue, candid/special moments...

Always remember to ask permission to take/post/send.

2. Tickets & access

a) Accessibility

Borealis is dedicated to being a welcoming, inclusive and accessible festival. We are working on new approaches in disability arts, access and audience engagement. While we are committed to accessibility for D/deaf and disabled people, we still have a lot to learn and any feedback is welcome. If you or anyone else has any ideas about what we could do better or just want to know more about our access policies or venue facilities, please get in touch at tilgjengelighet@borealisfestival.no

Not all our venues are accessible, and you may find some of our performances more suitable than others. On our website is a list of each venue's accessibility as well as what to expect from each performance.

4. Food, perks and festival bar(s)

Note: If you do not meet the requirements or you don't show up for the signed shifts, you lose your privilege to attend remaining festival events for free, and you will be obliged to pay for one festival pass.

a) Accreditation

Before your first shift, pick up your credentials and T-shirt:

- At our regular Borealis office: Strandgaten 207
 - Thursday, March 9th, between 11 and 15 o'clock.
 - Friday, March 10th, between 8 and 12.
 - Saturday, March 11th, between 14 and 18.
- At the volunteer area (4th floor): Bergen Internasjonale Kultursenter — Kong Oscars gate 15
 - From Wednesday, March 15th to Saturday 18th, between 8:30 and 21:30.

b) Volunteer tickets

To get tickets, contact the ticket manager or use the code to book online. You need to do this ahead of the event you'd like to see. You'll need to have your credentials with you when using your tickets.

c) Volunteer area & Caretakers

The volunteer area is situated at Bergen Internasjonale Kultursenter: Kong Oscars Gate 15, on the 4th floor, first room ahead. We'll set up a place for volunteers to get any info they need, accreditation, have a snack, a coffee break or have a nap during the festival. We want it to be a safe place for the volunteers where they can come during their work day. You can also use the volunteer area as a wardrobe (NB: only during your shift).

The Caretakers will be recognizable as they'll be wearing a yellow Borealis t-shirt and will be mainly in the volunteer area. If you need help with anything in relation with Borealis or need to talk to someone, they will be there for you.

d) Food

We are so lucky to have Hallaisen running the Festival Kitchen. The kitchen is vegetarian, homemade, and delicious! When working, we will provide lunch and/or dinner depending on shift time, but I would also recommend that you bring some snacks in case you get hungry. We also recommend you bring a water bottle and/or a thermos.

Thank you for your volunteering on Borealis 2023! We greatly appreciate your work!

Warmest Regards

Emilie Fanor-Fontaine, Volunteer Coordinator
& The rest of Borealis team.
